Lone graves around Fulton, Illinois.
Information obtained from Mr. Wayne Bastian
1011 1/2 Fourth Street, Fulton, Illinois.

O'Brien, Andy- was buried on the bluff north of Fulton d middle of Nov. 1881-He died from the disease, small pox. The "pest house" and grave were located east of the Burlington track and a few dods north of the "Big Ditch"

Aldrich, Eunicia- The Chapman Bros. History of Whiteside County claims that the first death in Fulton was Eunicia Aldrich and that she was buried near the Cattail Creek in 1838. Not too many years ago the grave was found a few rods east of the home on the Joseph Keegan farm.

Crutch, Pittsburg- d June 1883- buried on the island in the Missippi River south of Fulton where the railroad bridge crosses- He was a one-legged tramp who was drowned and buried there-

Within Morrison City limits-
Sec.18 Mount Pleasant twp. Whiteside Co. Ill.

At 104 West Knox Street-
Last year while excavating to widen the approach to the garage two marble slabs were unearthed. All that is readable is as follows;
(1) yrs-6 mo
(2) A----(name)
47 y

In the 300 block on East Market Street on the north side of the street. While excavating to put in a water main, about four feet under ground, the slab was unearthed.

Jay d Sept.25,1839- 1 mo.
Elizabeth d Sept.5,1841- 11 d.

Graves on Farm.
One mile N.W. of Morrison in the S.E.Corner of Sec.6, Mount Pleasant twp. Whiteside Co.Ill.on a farm now owned by Edith Williams. The graves are just a short distance N.W. of the old stone house at Jacobstown. In the early pioneer days Jacobstown was a village where the stage stopped , The trail West forded Rock Creek at that place.

Stones;

Parts of another stone which could not be put together

( We do not know if there ever was a cemetery in this place or not. The above graves might have been placed on a private farm.)

Old Family Burial Lot
Located inthe South East corner of Sec.II,Union Grove twp.Whiteside Co.Ill.

Some old settlers told us there was a cemetery on the side hill of what is now the Hanson farm.It was to be found in an apple orchard.We inquired of the tenant.

Only three stones were left.They were stacked in the barn.

Potter's field at Whiteside Co. Home

The Whiteside Co. Farm is located in the east part of Sec.23. Mt.Pleasant twp. The home is on the south side of U.S. Highway 30. Just west of the Home and farm buildings and east of Round Grove Cemetery is a burial place for those who died at the County Home. Since 1871 a record of those buried there has been kept in the running account of the Home. These records are in the office of the Superintendent of the County Nursing Home. In 1920 a separate account of the burials was begun. The following is a copy of that record.
There is only one stone-that for Moses Evans.
